

Geography

	Describe key aspects of Physical Geography (climate zones, earthquakes, water cycle). Human Geography (Land use).
	Identify and describe how the physical features affect human activity in a location.

History

	Identify periods of rapid change in history and contrast them with times of relatively little change.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

DT

	Measure accurately and calculate ratios of ingredients to scale up or down from a recipe.
	Create and refine recipes, including ingredients, methods cooking times and temperatures.
	Make products through stages of prototypes, making continual refinements.
	Ensure products have a high-quality finish, using art skills where appropriate.
	Use prototypes, cross-sectional diagrams and computer aided designs to represent designs.
	Evaluate the design of products so as to suggest improvements to the user experience.	