

British Isles- Year 4

	I can describe similarities and differences between countries.
	I can create original pieces that are influenced by studies of others.
	I can use maps, atlases, globes, digital mapping.
	I can use field work, human, physical features in the local area.
	I can use a range of resources to identify key features of a location.
	I can name & locate countries and cities of the UK – geographical regions, characteristics, understand how they may change over time.
	I can use compass directions – 8 points and four figure grid reference, symbols and keys to communicate knowledge of UK and wider world.
	I can describe key aspects of Physical Geography (Rivers, Volcanoes, water, water cycle) and human Geography (settlements, land use).
	I can design with purpose by identifying opportunities to design.
	I can Make products by working efficiently (such as by carefully selecting materials).
	I can refine work and techniques as work Progresses, continually Evaluating the product design.
	I can use software to design and represent Product designs.
	I can Identify some of the great designers in all of the areas of study (including pioneers in horticulture techniques) to generate ideas for designs.
	I can disassemble products to understand how they work.
	I can replicate some of the techniques used by notable artist, artisans and designers.