

Brazil (Year 5)

Prior Learning		Human and Physical Features
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Christ the Redeemer is a famous human feature of Brazil, just like the Pyramids are in Egypt and the Coliseum is in Italy. - The Amazon river is the biggest river in the world by volume, where the River Nile is the longest. - Brazil is based in the Earth's Southern Hemisphere as are Australia and Kenya whereas Spain is in the Northern Hemisphere - Like Spain, Brazil is adjacent to the Atlantic Ocean. 		Human Features	Christ the Redeemer, Favelas.
		Physical Features	Amazon River, Amazon Rainforest, Sugarloaf Mountain, Mount Corcovado.
Concept		Images, icons, maps and timelines
environment	Describes and explains the spatial aspects of interactions between individual human or societies and their natural environment.
interdependence	Countries are dependent on one another. Mutual dependence on the two nations' economies.
Key Vocabulary
Favela	A Brazilian shack or shanty town; a slum.
Amazon	The name of a rainforest and a river found in South America, notably in Brazil.
Ecosystem	A biological community of interacting organisms and their physical environment.
Deforestation	The action of clearing a wide area of trees.
Key Facts
Location – Brazil is located on the continent of South America
Capital City – Brasilia
Climate – As Brazil is close to the equator it is very hot throughout the year. The average temperature is 28-30°C year-round.
Language of Brazil - Portuguese
Christ the Redeemer is Brazil's most famous sculpture. It is a 30m high statue of Jesus Christ at the summit of Mount Corcovado that overlooks the city of Rio De Janeiro.
The Amazon Rainforest is the world's largest rainforest in the world.			